

How to get to the International Criminal Court?

Please note that there is no public parking at the ICC (groups arriving by coach may disembark). Visitors are strongly advised to use public transport.

Transport from The Hague to the ICC/Voorburg

Train

The nearest train station to the Court is Voorburg, which has a direct connection from The Hague Central Station ('Den Haag Centraal').

An Intercity train runs between The Hague Central Station and Voorburg every 15 minutes. There is no direct connection between Hollands Spoor station and Voorburg station. To get to Voorburg from Hollands Spoor you will need to change at The Hague Central Station.

Train times:

Den Haag Centraal (departure)	08 27 38 57	minutes after the hour
Voorburg (arrival)	12 31 42 01	minutes after the hour

From Voorburg station (and the nearby Movenpick hotel), take the steps down from the platform and walk back in the direction of The Hague, keeping the railway track on your right. Cross the main road and follow a path through a small park. You will come out the other side onto another main road. The Court is the white building on the opposite side of this road. The entrance for visitors is located at Regulusweg. This building is visible from the train on your right-hand side as you draw into Voorburg station.

Tram 10

Tram 10 runs Monday to Friday between the Statenkwartier area of The Hague, and Voorburg station, stopping opposite the Movenpick hotel. It also stops at The Hague Central Station and Hollands Spoor station.

Tram 10 runs 2 - 4 times an hour between the hours of 6.30 - 9.30 a.m., and 2.45 - 6.45 p.m.

Bus

From Den Haag Central Station:

Bus Connexxion 30 to Naaldwijk stops on the Regulusweg, just outside the Court's general public entrance.

Bus Connexxion 45 to Leiden Merenwijk stops at Heer Hubrechstraat bus stop. Continue walking down the Laan van Nieuw Oosteinde until you come to the traffic lights. Turn right under the motorway flyover and you will see the Court on the right-hand side.

From Hollands Spoor station:

Bus 26 runs Monday to Friday between Kijkduin and Voorburg via Hollands Spoor station. Bus 26 also stops on the Regulusweg, just outside the Court's general public entrance.
