I. INTRODUCTION

1. Counsel representing the collective interests of future applicants as well as of applicants in the proceedings and participating victims (the “Legal Representative”),¹ hereby submits her response to the “Requête en vertu de la Norme 35 du Règlement de la Cour visant à obtenir la prorogation des délais prévus pour déposer les requêtes portant sur des questions devant être résolues avant le début du procès et pour déposer le mémoire de la Défense” (the “Defence Request”).²

II. PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

2. On 21 February 2022, Trial Chamber VI (the “Chamber”) established the intermediate procedural steps leading up to the commencement date of the trial, and in particular invited the Defence to file a Defence Trial Brief by 12 August 2022,³ and set the deadline for the filing, by the parties, of all motions which require resolution prior to the commencement of trial motions requiring resolution prior to the commencement of trial to 22 July 2022.⁴

3. On 6 July 2022, the Defence filed the “Requête en vertu de la Norme 35 du Règlement de la Cour visant à obtenir la prorogation des délais prévus pour déposer les requêtes portant sur des questions devant être résolues avant le début du procès et pour déposer le mémoire de la Défense”.⁵

4. On the same day, the Chamber instructed the Prosecution and the Legal Representative to file any responses to said request by no later than 12 June 2022.⁶

III. SUBMISSIONS

5. The Legal Representative regrettably notes that the Defence Request is the last request for extension of time of an extensive list of similar submitted by the Defence over the last few months.⁷ In this regard, she recalls yet again that she previously put forward that “consistently seeking extensions for all responses might defeat the purpose of sufficiently spreading [the] workload, since all responses would be due in June and July, with the commencement of the trial gradually approaching".⁸ Indeed, while the Defence keeps referring to its important workload,⁹ it continues to fail to clarify that said deadlines are a result of its earlier requests for extension of time,¹⁰ and the Chamber's subsequent decisions.¹¹

6. The Legal Representative notes that the Defence has been on notice of the deadlines for which it now requests an extension since 21 February 2022.¹² Moreover, since its own requests to vary time limits are at the origin of its current workload, the Legal Representative posits that the Defence does not show good cause pursuant to Regulation 35 of the Regulations of the Court.

7. Furthermore, the Legal Representative also notes that the deadline requested by the Defence to present its Trial Brief carries over to the month of September, less than a month before the start of the trial.¹³ Therefore, the Legal Representative posits that if the Defence's request were to be granted, any subsequent deadline should remain unaffected, in particular, the one set for the commencement of the trial. In this regard, she reiterates that postponing the commencement date of the trial will
