Alleged crimes

Pre-Trial Chamber I found that there are reasonable grounds to believe that:

- A protracted armed conflict not of an international character existed in Darfur between the Government of Sudan and several organized armed groups, including the Justice and Equality Movement ("JEM"). In this context, an attack was carried out on 29 September 2007 against the African Union [peacekeeping] Mission in Sudan personnel, installations, material, units and vehicles that were stationed at the Military Group Site Haskanita ("MGS Haskanita"), Umm Kadada Locality, North Darfur, Sudan.
- The attack on the MGS Haskanita was allegedly carried out by splinter forces of JEM, under the command of Abu Garda, jointly with the troops belonging to another armed group. The attackers, approximately 1,000 persons armed with anti-aircraft guns, artillery guns and rocket-propelled grenade launchers, allegedly killed twelve and severely wounded eight AMIS soldiers. They allegedly destroyed communication, installations, dormitories, vehicles and other materials and appropriated property belonging to AMIS, including 17 vehicles, refrigerators, computers, cellular phones, military boots and uniforms, fuel, ammunition and money during and after the attack.

- It is alleged that Abu Garda and the other commanders of the troops that participated in such attack agreed on a common plan to attack the MSG Haskanita and that the common plan included the commission of the above-mentioned war crimes.
- The AMIS personnel, installations, material, units and vehicles stationed at the MGS Haskanita were the intended object of the attack.

Key judicial developments:

Referral and opening of the investigation

- The International Commission of Inquiry on Darfur was established by former United Nations Secretary-General Kofi Annan pursuant the Security Council resolution 1564. The Commission reported to the UN in January 2005 that there was reason to believe that crimes against humanity and war crimes had been committed in Darfur and recommended that the situation be referred to the ICC.
- Using its authority under the Rome Statute, the United Nations Security Council referred the situation in Darfur since 1 July 2002 to the Prosecutor of the International Criminal Court in resolution 1593 on 31 March 2005.
- Following the referral from the United Nations Security Council, the Prosecutor received the conclusion of the International Commission of Inquiry on Darfur. In addition, the Office of the Prosecutor requested information from a variety of sources, leading to the collection of thousands of documents. The Prosecutor concluded that the statutory requirements for initiating an investigation were satisfied and decided to open the investigation on 6 June 2005.

Summons to appear

- On 20 November 2008, The Prosecutor submitted an application under article 58 of the Statute for the issuance of warrants of arrest or, alternatively, summonses to appear for Bahr Idriss Abu Garda and two other individuals who allegedly participated to the attack on MGS Haskanita.
- On 23 February 2009, the Prosecutor filed a "submission of information on the Prosecutor's Application Pursuant to Article 58 and request for summonses to appear", partially modifying his original Application and requesting the Chamber to issue a summons to appear against Abu Garda.
- On 7 May 2009, the Pre-Trial Chamber I issued under seal a summons to appear against Abu Garda. The summons to appear was unsealed on 17 May 2009.
