

ANNEX A

Public

1. On 11 October 2010 the Office of the Prosecutor (“Prosecution”) filed the “Prosecution’s Observations on 218 Applications for Victim’s Participation in the Proceedings”.¹

2. The corrections are limited to the following:
 - a) Paragraph 2 (line 6) has been corrected so as to read: “as stated in detail in paragraphs 21 to 24 below.” Due to an oversight, the original document made reference to paragraphs 22 to 26.

 - b) The following Applicants: a/0892/10, a/1401/10, a/1752/10 have been deleted from paragraph 25. The afore-mentioned applicants were listed in paragraph 26 of the original document, listing the applicants for which the Prosecution cannot make a determination as to whether they can be granted participation in the trial proceedings. Due to a typographical error, these applicants were also listed in paragraph 25 of the original document, concerning the applicants for which the Prosecution requests authorization to participate.

 - c) The following Applicants: a/1469/10, a/1500/10, a/1776/10, a/1779/10 have been deleted from paragraph 25. The afore-mentioned applicants were listed in paragraph 27 of the original document, listing the applicants that in the Prosecution’s view can be presumed to meet the requirements, although they omit information in their applications. Due to a typographical error, these applicants were also listed in paragraph 25 of the original document, concerning the applicants for which the Prosecution requests authorization to participate.

d) In paragraph 26, Applicant a/1461/10 has been added. This applicant had been inadvertently omitted in the section of the original document related to the Prosecution's conclusions.

e) In paragraph 27, the reference to Applicant a/1779/10 has been corrected. Due to a typographical error, Applicant a/1779/10 was misquoted in the original document.
