News (including extract of an interview with Salah Merghani, Minister of Justice)

At 0:46

The Minister of Justice, Salah Merghani, said that the Libyan Government, over the coming period of time, will work towards transferring Saif Al-Islam Gaddafi to Tripoli, the capital, in order to address the Court concerning his trial in Libya. Merghani added, [in an interview] with Ajwa' FM: [Salah Merghani's voice] there are several lawyers who are prepared to form a defence team in order to achieve a fair trial in accordance with the international standards, so that we can, if we managed to do so and [managed] to transfer the defendant, file a new request before the ICC(...).
