To Ms Cathérine d. Mabilie
 Lead Counsel for Mr Thomas Lubanga
 Counsel at the International Criminal Court, The Hague
The Netherlands

Dear Madam,

We are honoured to acknowledge receipt of your letter, without a reference number, of 11 June 2015, on the subject of the “reintegration project” of Mr Thomas Lubanga. Please accept our thanks.

Mr Lubanga is a fellow native of Orientale province and a former student of the University of Kisangani. It is therefore with great pleasure that we learn that he may soon be granted early release after nine years of imprisonment.

As far as his re-enrolment within the University of Kisangani is concerned, we cannot refuse as a matter of principle. However, in compliance with the instructions of the Ministry of Higher and University Education, he must send us an application for enrolment in postgraduate studies. This will be considered by faculty bodies and the Management Committee for their approval. If all the University’s requirements are met, we shall approach the Congolese Government through the intermediary of the responsible minister (Minister for Higher and University Education) for its approval, given that it surrendered Mr Lubanga to the ICC and the question of his re-enrolment in the University is a special case and extremely sensitive.

Please be assured, Madam, of my highest consideration.
