

Judicial Seminar:

Complementarity and Cooperation of Courts in an Interconnected Global Justice System

18 January 2018; The Hague, Netherlands

Conference rooms 1-2

TIME	ACTIVITIES
8:15 – 9:15	VIP and Participant Arrivals & Welcome Coffee
9:15 – 9:30	Welcoming Remarks - Judge Silvia Fernández de Gurmendi, President of the ICC
09:30 – 10:30	Complementarity: Introduction and Open Discussion Moderator: Judge Chile Eboe-Osuji Discussant: Judge Robert Fremr <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Principle of complementarity under the Rome Statute (articles 17-19) • Experiences of national courts in addressing Rome Statute crimes • Role of regional courts • Relationship/convergence of criminal courts and human rights courts • How to strengthen global respect for the rule of law
10:30 – 11:00	Coffee Break & Family Photo
11:00 – 12:00	Complementarity (open discussion continued)
12:00 – 13:30	Lunch
13:30 – 14:30	Cooperation: Introduction & Open Discussion Moderator: Judge Howard Morrison Discussant: Judge Chang-ho Chung <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Prospects of cooperation and exchange of expertise between courts • Challenges faced by courts in relation to judicial assistance in criminal matters • Resource-related challenges of courts • Challenges of perception and legitimacy; relationship of justice and politics • Can cross-jurisdictional dialogue assist in addressing shared challenges of courts?
14:30 – 14:45	Coffee Break
14:45 – 15:45	Cooperation (open discussion continued)
15:45 – 16:00	Closing Remarks - Judge Joyce Aluoch, First Vice-President of the ICC
16:30	Ceremony for the Opening of the 2018 Judicial Year, in Courtroom 1