

INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL COURT AT 20

Reflections on the Past,
Present and the Future

Liz Evenson

Secretariat Director, Coalition for the International Criminal Court

Liz Evenson is currently the Secretariat Director at the Coalition for the International Criminal Court, the world's largest civil society partnership championing access to justice for Rome Statute crimes. She is on leave as associate director in the International Justice Program of Human Rights Watch. Her research and advocacy at Human Rights Watch centers on the International Criminal Court. She holds a B.A. from the University of Chicago, an M.Phil from the University of Nottingham, and a J.D. from Columbia Law School.