CASE UPDATES

SITUATION IN UGANDA

5 warrants of arrest (3 withdrawn) | 0 accused in custody | 1 suspect at large | 2 cases

The situation was referred to the ICC by the Ugandan government in December 2003. The Prosecutor opened an investigation in July 2004. On 1 December 2023, the Prosecutor announced that the investigation phase in the Uganda situation has been concluded.

THE PROSECUTOR V. JOSEPH KONY (PRE-TRIAL STAGE)

As top member of the Lord's Resistance Army (LRA), Joseph Kony is suspected of crimes against humanity and war crimes allegedly committed in Uganda since July 2002. The suspect is not in ICC custody. The case also involved Raska Lukwiya, Okot Odhiambo and Vincent Otti but proceedings were terminated due to their passing. On 29 October 2024, Pre-Trial Chamber III issued a decision concluding that all the requirements to hold a confirmation of charges hearing in the absence of the suspect Joseph Kony are now met. On 3 June 2025, the Appeals Chamber confirmed the decision on the criteria for holding confirmation of charges proceedings in absentia. The confirmation of charges hearing in the case took place, in the suspect's absence, on 9 and 10 September 2025. On 6 November 2025, Pre-Trial Chamber III confirmed all the 39 charges brought by the Prosecutor in the Kony case and committed him to trial. Although the charges are confirmed, this trial would require Mr Kony to be present before the ICC as trials cannot be held in the suspect's absence.

THE PROSECUTOR V. DOMINIC ONGWEN (REPARATIONS STAGE)

On 4 February 2021, Dominic Ongwen, former Brigade Commander of the LRA's Sinia Brigade, was found guilty of 61 crimes against humanity and war crimes, committed in Northern Uganda between 1 July 2002 and 31 December 2005. On 6 May 2021, Trial Chamber IX sentenced him to 25 years of imprisonment. The period of his detention at the ICC will be deducted from the total time of imprisonment imposed. On 15 December 2022, the Appeals Chamber confirmed the decisions on Mr Ongwen's guilt and sentence, which are now final. Furthermore, a phase dedicated to the reparations to victims is ongoing. On 18 December 2023, Mr Ongwen was transferred to Norway to serve his sentence of imprisonment. On 28 February 2024, Trial Chamber IX delivered its Order on Reparations to victims in the case. On 7 April 2025, the Appeals Chamber confirmed the decision on reparations.

SITUATION IN THE DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC OF THE CONGO (DRC)

7 warrants of arrest | 0 accused in custody | 1 suspect at large | 6 cases

The situation was referred to the ICC by the DRC government in March 2004. The Prosecutor opened an investigation in June 2004. The DRC government submitted a second referral on 23 May 2023 concerning alleged crimes committed in North Kivu by members of different armed groups and forces since 1 January 2022. On 14 October 2024, the Prosecutor announced the renewal of investigative efforts in the DRC with a priority focus on any alleged Rome Statute crimes occurring in North Kivu since January 2022. The Prosecutor determined that the latest episodes of violence in North Kivu since 2022 are interconnected with patterns of violence and hostilities that have plagued the region since at least 1 July 2002, the start of the Court's jurisdiction in the DRC. Therefore, any alleged Rome Statute crimes committed in North Kivu since 1 January 2022 would fall within the remit of the ongoing investigation opened in June 2004.

THE PROSECUTOR V. THOMAS LUBANGA DYILO (REPARATIONS STAGE)

Thomas Lubanga Dyilo was found guilty on 14 March 2012, as co-perpetrator, of committing the war crimes of the enlistment and conscription of children under the age of 15 into the Force patriotiques pour la libération du Congo and using them to participate actively in hostilities between September 2002 and August 2003. On 10 July 2012, he was sentenced to 14 years of imprisonment. The time spent in ICC custody was deducted. On 1 December 2014, the Appeals Chamber confirmed the verdict and sentence. On 7 August 2012, Trial Chamber I issued a decision on the principles and the process for reparations to victims. On 3 March 2015, the Appeals Chamber amended the Trial Chamber's order for reparations and instructed the Trust Fund for Victims (TFV) to present a draft implementation plan for collective reparations to a newly constituted Chamber. The TFV presented the plan on 3 November 2015. On 9 February 2016, Trial Chamber II ordered the TFV to add information to the plan. On 21 October 2016, Trial Chamber II approved and ordered to start the implementation of a TFV plan for symbolic collective reparations. On 15 December 2017, Trial Chamber II set the amount of Mr Lubanga's liability for collective reparations at USD 10,000,000. This decision was confirmed in appeals on 18 July 2019. On 4 March 2021, Trial Chamber II issued a public redacted version of its decision of 14 December 2020, approving the implementation of collective service-based reparations to victims. On 19 December 2015, Mr Lubanga was transferred to a DRC prison to serve his sentence, which he completed on 15 March 2020.

THE PROSECUTOR V. GERMAIN KATANGA (CASE COMPLETED)

On 7 March 2014, Germain Katanga was found guilty as an accessory of one count of crime against humanity (murder) and four counts of war crimes (murder, attacking a civilian population, destruction of property and pillaging) committed on 24 February 2003 during an attack on the village of Bogoro, in Ituri (DRC). He was acquitted of the other charges. On 23 May 2014, Mr Katanga was sentenced to 12 years' imprisonment. The time spent in ICC detention was deducted. On 25 June 2014, the Defence and the Prosecution discontinued their appeals against the judgment. On 13 November 2015, three Appeals Chamber judges reduced Mr Katanga's sentence. On 19 December 2015, Mr Katanga was transferred to a DRC prison to serve his sentence, which he completed on 18 January 2016. On 24 March 2017, Trial Chamber II awarded individual and collective reparations to the victims. Because of Mr Katanga's indigence, the TFV was invited to consider using its resources for the reparations and to present an implementation plan. On 8 March 2018, the Appeals Chamber confirmed, for the most part, the Reparations Order. On 30 January 2025, Trial Chamber II determined the conclusion of the reparations proceedings, based on the Final Report on the Implementation of Reparations submitted by the TFV on 2 December 2024.

THE PROSECUTOR V. MATHIEU NGUDJOLO CHUI (ACQUITTAL FINAL)

Mathieu Ngudjolo Chui was acquitted, on 18 December 2012, of three counts of crimes against humanity and seven counts of war crimes allegedly committed on 24 February 2003 during an attack on the village of Bogoro, in Ituri (DRC). On 21 December 2012, he was released from custody. On 27 February 2015, the Appeals Chamber confirmed the acquittal.

THE PROSECUTOR V. BOSCO NTAGANDA (REPARATIONS STAGE)

On 8 July 2019, ICC Trial Chamber VI found Bosco Ntaganda guilty, beyond reasonable doubt, of 18 counts of war crimes and crimes against humanity, committed in Ituri, DRC, in 2002-2003. On 7 November 2019, Bosco Ntaganda was sentenced to 30 years of imprisonment. On 30 March 2021, the Appeals Chamber confirmed the conviction and the sentence. On 8 March 2021, Trial Chamber VI delivered its Order on Reparations. On 12 September 2022, the Appeals Chamber issued its appeals judgment and remanded several issues for the Trial Chamber to issue a new reparations order. On 14 July 2023, Trial Chamber II delivered an Addendum to the Reparations Order of 8 March 2021. On 14 December 2022, Mr Ntaganda was transferred to Belgium to serve his sentence.

THE PROSECUTOR V. CALLIXTE MBARUSHIMANA (CHARGES DECLINED)

Callixte Mbarushimana, alleged Executive Secretary of the Forces Démocratiques pour la Libération du Rwanda - Forces Combattantes Abacunguzi was charged with crimes against humanity and war crimes allegedly committed in the Kivus in 2009. On 16 December 2011, Pre-Trial Chamber I declined to confirm the charges against him. On 23 December 2011, he was released from custody. On 30 May 2012, the decision was confirmed in appeals.

THE PROSECUTOR V. SYLVESTRE MUDACUMURA (PRE-TRIAL STAGE)

Sylvestre Mudacumura, alleged Supreme Commander of the FDLR-FCA, is suspected of nine counts of war crimes allegedly committed from 20 January 2009 to the end of September 2010 in the Kivus. The suspect is not in ICC custody

SITUATION IN DARFUR, SUDAN

7 warrants of arrest | 3 summonses to appear | 1 suspect in custody | 4 suspects at large | 6 cases

The situation was referred to the ICC by the United Nations (UN) Security Council's resolution 1593 of 31 March 2005. The Prosecutor opened an investigation in June 2005.

THE PROSECUTOR V. ALI MUHAMMAD ALI ABD-AL-RAHMAN (REPARATIONS STAGE)

Ali Muhammad Ali Abd-Al-Rahman was transferred to the ICC's custody on 9 June 2020, after his voluntary surrender in the Central African Republic. On 9 July 2021, Pre-Trial Chamber II confirmed all the charges of war crimes and crimes against humanity brought by the Prosecutor against Mr Abd-Al-Rahman and committed him to trial. On 5 April 2022, the trial opened before Trial Chamber I. The closing statements in the trial took place on 11-13 December 2024. On 6 October 2025, Trial Chamber I found Mr Abd-Al-Rahman guilty of 27 counts of crimes against humanity and war crimes, in Darfur, Sudan, between August 2003 and April 2004. On 6 November 2025, the Defence filed its Notice of Appeal of the judgment. The Appeals Chamber will rule on the appeal in due course. On 9 December, Trial Chamber I sentenced Mr Abd-Al-Rahman to 20 years of imprisonment. The time spent in detention will be deducted from his sentence. The Defence and Prosecution filed their notices of appeal against the sentence on 8 and 9 January 2026, respectively. The Appeals Chamber will rule on these appeals in due course. On 9 December 2025, Trial Chamber I also issued an order for submissions on reparations, with the relevant timeline and guidance for this process in this case.

THE PROSECUTOR V. AHMAD MUHAMMAD HARUN ("AHMAD HARUN") (PRE-TRIAL STAGE)

Former Minister of State for the Interior Ahmad Harun is suspected of crimes against humanity and war crimes allegedly committed in Darfur in 2003 and 2004. The suspect is not in the Court's custody.

THE PROSECUTOR V. OMAR HASSAN AHMAD AL BASHIR (PRE-TRIAL STAGE)

Former Sudanese President Omar Al Bashir is charged with five counts of crimes against humanity (murder, extermination, forcible transfer, torture and rape), two counts of war crimes (intentionally directing attacks against a civilian population as such or against individual civilians not taking part in hostilities, and pillaging), and three counts of genocide allegedly committed against the Fur, Masalit and Zaghawa ethnic groups in Darfur, Sudan, from 2003 to 2008. The suspect is not in ICC custody.

THE PROSECUTOR V. BAHAR IDRIS ABU GARDIA (CHARGES DECLINED)

Bahar Idriss Abu Garda, chairman and general coordinator of military operations of the United Resistance Front, was charged with three counts of war crimes allegedly committed in an attack against the African Union (AU) Peacekeeping Mission in Sudan on 29 September 2007. On 8 February 2010, Pre-Trial Chamber I declined to confirm the charges due to insufficient evidence.

THE PROSECUTOR V. ABDALLAH BANDA ABAKAER NOURAIN (CHARGES WITHDRAWN)

Abdallah Banda was charged with three counts of war crimes (committing or attempting to commit an attack on life in the form of murder; intentionally directing attacks against personnel, installations, material, units or vehicles involved in a peacekeeping mission; and pillage) allegedly committed during the attack carried out on 29 September 2007 against the African Union Mission in Sudan. While this case also concerned Saleh Mohammed Jerbo Jamus, Trial Chamber IV terminated the proceedings against him on 4 October 2013 following the receipt of evidence of his death. On 23 July 2026, after authorising the withdrawal of the charges at the request of the Prosecutor, Trial Chamber IV terminated the proceedings against Mr Banda and ordered the cancellation of the arrest warrant issued against him.

THE PROSECUTOR V. ABDEL RAHEEM MUHAMMAD HUSSEIN (PRE-TRIAL STAGE)

Abdel Raheem Muhammad Hussein, former Minister of Sudan National Defence and former Minister of the Interior and former Sudanese President's Special Representative in Darfur, is charged with seven counts of crimes against humanity (persecution, murder, forcible transfer, rape, inhumane acts, imprisonment or severe deprivation of liberty and torture) and six counts of war crimes (murder, attacks against civilian population, destruction of property, rape, pillaging and outrage upon personal dignity) allegedly committed in Darfur from 2002 on. The suspect is not in ICC custody.

SITUATION IN THE CENTRAL AFRICAN REPUBLIC (CAR)

2 warrants of arrest | 0 accused in custody | 0 suspects at large | 2 cases

The situation was referred to the ICC by the CAR government in December 2004. The Prosecutor opened an investigation in May 2007. On 16 December 2022, the Prosecutor announced that the investigation phase in the CAR situation has been concluded.

THE PROSECUTOR V. JEAN-PIERRE BEMBA GOMBO (CASE CLOSED)

On 8 June 2018, the Appeals Chamber decided, by majority, to acquit Jean-Pierre Bemba Gombo, alleged President and Commander-in-chief of the Mouvement de libération du Congo [Movement for the Liberation of Congo] (MLC), from the charges of war crimes and crimes against humanity allegedly committed in CAR from on or about 26 October 2002 to 15 March 2003. The Chamber indicated that there was no reason to continue Mr Bemba's detention in this case.

THE PROSECUTOR V. JEAN-PIERRE BEMBA GOMBO, AIMÉ KILOLO MUSAMBA, JEAN-JACQUES MANGENDA KABONGO, FIDÈLE BABALA WANDU AND NARCISSE ARIDO (APPEALS STAGE)

On 19 October 2016, Jean-Pierre Bemba Gombo, Aimé Kilolo Musamba, Jean-Jacques Mangenda Kabongo, Fidèle Babala Wandu and Narcisse Arido were found guilty of offences against the administration of justice related to intentionally corruptly influencing witnesses and soliciting false testimonies of defence witnesses in the other ICC case against Mr Bemba. On 22 March 2017, Trial Chamber VII delivered the sentences. On 8 March 2018, the Appeals Chamber confirmed the convictions for most of the charges. But it acquitted Mr Bemba, Mr Kilolo and Mr Mangenda of the charge of presenting evidence that a party knows is false or forged. The convictions and acquittals in relation to the five accused are now final. As for the sentences, the Appeals Chamber rejected the appeals of Mr Bemba, Mr Babala and Mr Arido; the sentences imposed on Mr Babala and Mr Arido are now final. But the Appeals Chamber reversed the sentences of Mr Bemba, Mr Mangenda and Mr Kilolo and remanded the matter to the Trial Chamber for a new determination, which was made on 17 September 2018. On 12 June 2018, Trial Chamber VII ordered interim release under specific conditions for Mr Bemba. The imprisonment sentences were served.

SITUATION IN THE CENTRAL AFRICAN REPUBLIC II

6 warrants of arrest | 3 suspects in custody | 1 suspect at large | 3 cases

On 30 May 2014, the Prosecutor received a referral from the CAR authorities regarding alleged crimes in CAR since 1 August 2012. On 24 September 2014, the Prosecutor opened a second investigation in CAR regarding crimes allegedly committed since 2012. On 16 December 2022, the Prosecutor announced that, beyond the cases pending before the ICC, the investigation phase in the CAR situation has been concluded.

THE PROSECUTOR V. ALFRED YEKATOM AND PATRICE-EDOUARD NGAÏSSONA (REPARATIONS STAGE)

On 11 December 2019, Pre-Trial Chamber II partially confirmed the charges of war crimes and crimes against humanity brought by the Prosecutor against Alfred Yekatom and Patrice-Edouard Ngaïssona and committed them to trial. The decision's redacted version was published on 20 December 2019. The trial opened on 16 -18 February 2021 before Trial Chamber V. The closing statements in this trial took place on 9 -12 December 2024. On 24 July 2025, Trial Chamber V found Mr Ngaïssona and Mr Yekatom guilty of a number of war crimes and crimes against humanity committed in Bangui and the west of the Central African Republic between September 2013 and at least February 2014. On the same date, Trial Chamber V sentenced Mr Yekatom to 15 years of imprisonment and Mr Ngaïssona to 12 years of imprisonment. The time spent in detention will be deducted from their sentences. The convicted persons will remain in the ICC detention centre until the ICC designates a country or countries to serve their sentence. On 26 September 2025, the Defense of Mr Ngaïssona and of Mr Yekatom, as well as the Office of the Prosecutor, filed their notices of appeals against the judgment. The Appeals Chamber will rule on these appeals in due course. Trial Chamber V has scheduled a public hearing on reparations for victims on 1 October 2026.

THE PROSECUTOR V. MAHAMAT SAID ABDEL KANI (TRIAL STAGE)

On 23 September 2026, Trial Chamber VI found Mahamat Said Abdel Kani guilty beyond any reasonable doubt for the crimes against humanity of imprisonment or other severe deprivation of physical liberty, torture, persecution and other inhumane acts, committed at the Office Central de Répression du Banditisme in Bangui (CAR) between 12 April and 30 August 2013. The Chamber did not find Mr Said guilty beyond reasonable doubt for the war crimes of torture, cruel treatment, and outrages upon personal dignity. The Defence and the Prosecution may appeal the verdict within 30 days. The Chamber will decide in due course on Mr Said's sentence. A reparations process will also begin, for the victims of the crimes for which Mr Said was convicted. Mr Said is in ICC's custody.

THE PROSECUTOR V. MAXIME JEOFFROY ELI MOKOM GAWAKA (CHARGES WITHDRAWN)

Maxime Jeoffroy Eli Mokom Gawaka was surrendered to the ICC on 14 March 2022 for war crimes and crimes against humanity allegedly committed in various locations in CAR between at least 5 December 2013 and at least December 2014. On 17 October 2023, Pre-Trial Chamber II terminated the proceedings in this case following the Prosecution's notice of withdrawal of the charges against Mr Mokom. Mr. Mokom was released from the ICC detention on the same day.

MAHAMAT NOURADINE ADAM (AT LARGE)

On 28 July 2022, Pre-Trial Chamber II issued the public redacted version of the Warrant of Arrest against Mahamat Nouradine Adam for alleged war crimes and crimes against humanity in the context of the situation in the Central African Republic II. The Warrant of Arrest had originally been issued under seal on 7 January 2019. The suspect is not in ICC custody.

EDMOND BEINA (CASE CLOSED)

On 7 November 2024, Pre-Trial Chamber II unsealed an arrest warrant issued on 7 December 2018 against Edmond Beina, for alleged crimes against humanity and war crimes committed in Guen, CAR, between at least 1 February to early April 2014. On 12 September 2025, Pre-trial Chamber II determined that the Central African Republic is willing and able to genuinely investigate and prosecute the case against Mr Beina and that the case against Mr Beina is inadmissible before the ICC. On 11 March 2026, the Appeals Chamber confirmed the decision of Pre-trial Chamber II.

SITUATION IN KENYA

6 summonses to appear | 3 arrest warrants | 0 accused in custody | 2 suspects at large | 5 cases

On 31 March 2010, Pre-Trial Chamber II authorised the Prosecutor to open an investigation in the situation in the Republic of Kenya, in relation to the 2007-2008 post-election violence in that country. On 27 November 2023, the Deputy Prosecutor announced that the investigation phase in the Kenya situation has been concluded.

THE PROSECUTOR V. WILLIAM SAMOEI RUTO AND JOSHUA ARAP SANG (CASE TERMINATED)

William Samoei Ruto and Joshua Arap Sang faced three counts of crimes against humanity allegedly committed in the context of the 2007-2008 post-election violence in Kenya. On 5 April 2016, Trial Chamber V(A) terminated the case against them.

THE PROSECUTOR V. UHURU MUIGAI KENYATTA (CHARGES WITHDRAWN)

Uhuru Kenyatta faced five counts of crimes against humanity allegedly committed in the context of the 2007-2008 post-election violence in Kenya. On 13 March 2015, Trial Chamber V(B) terminated the proceedings in the case and vacated the summons to appear against Mr Kenyatta.

THE PROSECUTOR V. WALTER OSAPIRI BARASA (PRE-TRIAL STAGE)
