Mr Herman von Hebel

The Appeals Chamber of the International Criminal Court,

In the appeal of the Legal Representative of Victims against the order of Trial Chamber VIII entitled “Reparations Order” of 17 August 2017 (ICC-01/12-01/15-236),

Having before it the “Brief in support of the Appeal (in part and limited) ICC-01/12-01/15-242-Conf-Exp-Corr filed against the Reparations Order of 17 August 2017 (ICC-01/12-01/15-236) issued by Trial Chamber VIII”, dated 17 October 2017 and registered, in its French original version, on 18 October 2017 (ICC-01/12-01/15-244-tENG),

Issues the following

DIRECTIONS

1. The Trust Fund for Victims is invited to submit, by 16h00 on 24 November 2017, written observations on the appeal brief filed by the Legal Representative of Victims.
2. Mr Al Mahdi and the Legal Representative of Victims may submit written responses to the observations to be filed pursuant to paragraph 1, above, by 16h00 on 8 December 2017.
3. Mr Al Madhi is invited to consider submitting his response to the appeal brief filed by the Legal Representative of Victims also by 16h00 on 8 December 2017.
4. Any request for leave to submit observations under rule 103 of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence on the appeal shall be filed by 16h00 on 10 November 2017, stipulating the specific issues to be addressed on the basis of the appeal.

REASONS

1. On 17 October 2017, the Legal Representative of Victims filed an appeal brief<sup>1</sup> (“Appeal Brief”) against the “Reparations Order” issued by Trial Chamber VIII on 17 August 2017.<sup>2</sup>
2. Given the issues raised in the Appeal Brief, and considering it desirable for the proper determination of the case, the Appeals Chamber, acting pursuant to rule 103 (1) of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence (“Rules”), invites the Trust Fund for Victims (“TFV”) to submit observations on the Appeal Brief by 16h00 on 24 November 2017.
3. The Appeals Chamber notes that rule 103 (2) of the Rules provides that the Prosecutor and defence shall have the opportunity to respond to observations submitted under this provision. The Appeals Chamber considers that rule 103 (2) of the Rules applies mutatis mutandis to the Legal Representative of Victims in the present proceedings.<sup>3</sup> Accordingly, the Appeals Chamber determines that the Legal Representative of Victims as well as Mr Al Mahdi may respond to the observations of the TFV by 16h00 on 8 December 2017.
4. Noting the limited scope of the Appeals Brief, the Appeals Chamber invites Mr Al Mahdi to consider filing his response thereto on the same date, i.e. in advance of the time limit stipulated by regulation 59 (1) of the Regulations of the Court.
5. Furthermore, in order to facilitate the expeditious conduct of the proceedings, the Appeals Chamber directs that any requests for leave to submit observations under rule 103 (2) of the Rules by entities other than the TFV shall be submitted by 16h00 on 10 November 2017. The Appeals Chamber indicates that, should it grant leave to submit observations subsequent to any such request, it will likely ask for such
