The plenary of judges of the International Criminal Court (the ‘Court’), with the exception of Judge Rosario Salvatore Aitala and Judge Gerardo Ugalde Godínez,

In the Situation in Ukraine,

NOTING the ‘Application for the Disqualification of Judges’ made by Mongolia filed on 31 October 2024 referring to article 41(2)(a) of the Rome Statute (the ‘Disqualification Application’), seeking that Judge Aitala and Judge Ugalde be disqualified from Pre-Trial Chamber II from adjudicating on Mongolia’s request for leave to appeal the finding of non-compliance by Mongolia entered by Pre-Trial Chamber II on 24 October 2024,<sup>1</sup> and that Judge Tomoko Akane and Judge Aitala be disqualified from the Presidency in connection with the Disqualification Application;<sup>2</sup>

RECALLING the unanimous decision of the plenary of judges rejecting the Disqualification Application;<sup>3</sup>

NOTING the ‘Request for Partial Reconsideration of the Decision on the “Application for the Disqualification of Judges”, or Alternatively, a Submission of a new Application for Disqualification’ made by Mongolia on 2 December 2024 (the ‘Reconsideration Application’), in which Mongolia withdrew its request for the disqualification of Judge Akane and requested that the plenary reconsider its decision rejecting the Disqualification Application insofar as it relates to Judge Aitala and Judge Ugalde on the basis of, inter alia, alleged legal and procedural errors and new evidence;<sup>4</sup>
