The plenary of judges of the International Criminal Court has before it the ‘Request for Partial Reconsideration on the “Application for the Disqualification of Judges”, or Alternatively, a Submission of a new Application for Disqualification’ made by Mongolia on 2 December 2024 (the ‘Application’).¹

A plenary of judges was convened on 3 March 2025 in order to consider the Application.

The plenary of judges, acting unanimously, decided to dismiss the Application. A fully reasoned decision of the plenary will follow as soon as possible.

Done in both English and French, the English version being authoritative.

Judge Tomoko Akane
President
