1. On 23 September 2026 Trial Chamber VI (“Chamber”) delivered its judgment pursuant to article 74 of the Statute, finding Mr SAID guilty of crimes against humanity.¹

2. On the same day, the Chamber in its “Decision on the Sentencing Procedure” ordered the parties and participants to file by 7 October 2026 any request to present additional evidence relevant to the sentence.²

3. On 6 October 2026, the Chamber amended the time limits in relation to the sentencing procedure, in its “Decision on the Defence’s Requests concerning the Sentencing Procedure” and ordered the parties and participants to file by 9 October 2026 any request to present additional evidence.³

4. Noting the Chamber’s guidance, in both decisions issued on 23 September 2026 and 6 October 2026, regarding the abundance of evidence of potential relevance to sentencing already on the record,⁴ and considering that the evidence presented during the trial is sufficient for the purpose of determining Mr SAID’s sentence, the Office of the Prosecutor hereby informs the Trial Chamber that it does not intend to present additional evidence relevant to the sentencing stage of the proceedings.
