Action plan

1. As indicated in its last filing, the Registry had arranged for [REDACTED] [REDACTED] in order to prepare the arrival of Abadallah Banda Abakaer Nourain (Mr. Banda) and Saleh Mohammed Jerbo Jamus (Mr Jerbo).
2. The objective of the Registry was threefold. First, the Registry was to assist the two individuals upon their arrival [REDACTED] with the practical arrangements for their travel to the Netherlands. Second, the delegation was to serve them the summonses to appear and the rules and conditions of stay in the Netherlands [REDACTED]. Third, the Registry was to facilitate a meeting between the individuals and their Defence counsels.
3. The legal and operational framework necessary to support this operation to take place is ready.
4. The Host State has put in place the necessary arrangements. The [REDACTED] authorities have been informed of the operation.
5. Both counsels are ready to go to [REDACTED] in order to meet with their clients. The counsel of Mr. Jerbo is also ready to [REDACTED] in order to meet his client [REDACTED], should Mr Jerbo [REDACTED]. [REDACTED]. The Duty counsels however have to this date not had access to the files. Encrypted CDs will be sent today [REDACTED] in the respective law firms.
6. In [REDACTED] the necessary logistical arrangements have been made in order to facilitate the notification process and proper consultations between the individuals and their counsels in the language chosen by the former.
7. On the basis of the information provided by the Office of the Prosecutor in its filing of today, the Registry has decided to freeze the said operation.

Contingency plan

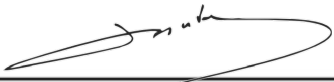

8. The Registry remains ready to [REDACTED]
[REDACTED], should the situation at hand change.
9. In this event, the notification of the summonses to appear could take place on [REDACTED]. The consultation with their Counsels would however be reduced to the very minimum.
10. Also, the Registry informs the Chamber that should Mr. Jerbo [REDACTED]
[REDACTED], a video conference could be organized from [REDACTED]. The Registry cannot however support such request before [REDACTED].

Confidentiality issues

11. The Registry would like to draw the attention of the Chamber that in order to implement its decision, [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

AWAITS for further instructions from the Chamber;

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED
