TRIAL CHAMBER VII (the ‘Chamber’) of the International Criminal Court, in the case of The Prosecutor v. Khaled Mohamed Ali El Hishri, having regard to Article 64(3) of the Rome Statute and Rules 118(3) and 132(2) of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence (the ‘Rules’), issues this ‘Order Scheduling the Second Status Conference’.

1. To facilitate the preparation of the second status conference, the Chamber seeks updated submissions from the parties and participants on trial preparation matters, including progress of (and any exceptions to) disclosure, protective measures, agreed facts, location for audio-video link testimony, and any other issue which requires resolution prior to the start of trial. The parties and participants are encouraged to liaise and file joint submissions on these (and other relevant) points.
2. The Chamber instructs the parties and participants to file their submissions by 17 November 2026, as well as any proposed items to the agenda.
3. Pursuant to Rules 118(3) and 132(2) of the Rules, the Chamber sets 24 November 2026 as the date of the second status conference.
4. The status conference will consist of a first inter partes session, a second session on detention-related matters pursuant to Rule 118(3) of the Rules, and a third and final session to be held in private session and ex parte, with the Prosecution and the Victims and Witnesses Section only, to discuss residual witness protection issues.

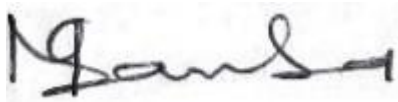

FOR THESE REASONS, THE CHAMBER HEREBY

CONVENES a status conference on 24 November 2026 (9:30-11:00; 11:30-13:00; and 14:30-16:00); and

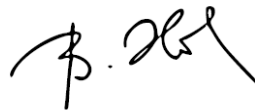

ORDERS the parties and participants to provide written submissions, as set out above, by 17 November 2026.
