1. Trial Chamber II of the International Criminal Court (respectively, “the Chamber” and “the Court”) recalls the need for a status conference in order that a date may be set for trial pursuant to rule 132 of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence.
2. To this end, the Chamber deems it appropriate to obtain from the participants in the proceedings and from the Registry information that will enable it to conduct this first status conference effectively.
3. Pursuant to article 64(3) of the Statute of the Court and to regulation 28 of the Regulations of the Court, the Chamber hereby informs the participants in the proceedings and the Registry that they will shortly receive an agenda, together with a questionnaire relating to the information with which it wishes each of them to provide it.
4. The Chamber believes, however, that the date of the status conference should be fixed now, so that those concerned can make all necessary arrangements.

FOR THESE REASONS,

The Chamber hereby convenes a status conference for 27 November 2008 at 10 a.m., continuing if need be on 28 November 2008.

Done in both English and French, the French version being authoritative.
