Judge Ekaterina Trendafilova, acting as Single Judge on behalf of Pre-Trial Chamber II (the “Chamber”) of the International Criminal Court (the “Court”),¹ renders this decision concerning: the postponement of the hearings scheduled between 7 and 14 September 2009, the States’ requests for postponement of these same hearings,² and the Defence’s additional applications.³

1. On 23 May 2008 Pre-Trial Chamber III issued a warrant of arrest against Jean-Pierre Bemba Gombo (“Mr Jean-Pierre Bemba”)⁴ and on 24 May 2008 he was arrested in the Kingdom of Belgium.

2. On 10 June 2008 Pre-Trial Chamber III issued the “Decision on the Prosecutor’s Application for a Warrant of Arrest against Jean-Pierre Bemba Gombo”.⁵ On the same date, Pre-Trial Chamber III issued a new warrant of arrest, which entirely replaced the one of 23 May 2008.⁶

3. On 3 July 2008 Mr Jean-Pierre Bemba was surrendered to the seat of the Court where his first appearance took place before Pre-Trial Chamber III on 4 July 2008.⁷

4. On 20 August 2008 Judge Hans-Peter Kaul, acting as Single Judge on behalf of the Pre-Trial Chamber III, issued the “Decision on application for interim release” in which he rejected the Defence’s application for interim release and decided that Mr Jean-Pierre Bemba shall continue to be detained.⁸

5. On 16 December 2008 Judge Ekaterina Trendafilova, acting as Single Judge on behalf of Pre-Trial Chamber III, issued the “Decision on Application for Interim Release” in which she, inter alia, rejected the second application for interim release and decided that Mr Jean-Pierre Bemba shall continue to be detained.⁹

6. On 14 April 2009 Judge Ekaterina Trendafilova, acting as Single Judge on behalf of the Chamber¹⁰ also issued the “Decision on Application for Interim Release”, in which, she, inter alia, rejected the Defence’s third application for interim release.¹¹

7. On 15 June 2009 the Chamber issued the “Decision Pursuant to Article 61(7)(a) and (b) of the Rome Statute on the Charges of the Prosecutor Against Jean-Pierre Bemba Gombo”, in which it was decided, inter alia, that there is sufficient evidence to establish substantial grounds to believe that the accused is criminally responsible under article 28(a) of the Rome Statute (the “Statute”) for two counts of crimes against humanity and three counts of war crimes, and to commit him to a Trial Chamber.¹²

8. On 16 June 2009 the Single Judge issued the “Decision to Hold a Hearing pursuant to Rule 118(3) of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence”.¹³

9. On 29 June 2009 the Single Judge held the hearing, during which the Defence requested Mr Jean-Pierre Bemba’s interim release to the Kingdom of Belgium, the Republic of France and the Republic of Portugal.¹⁴ Accordingly, the Single Judge requested that these States, as well as the Kingdom of the Netherlands, as a host State, submit their observations on “[...] Mr. Jean-Pierre Bemba’s interim release; and [...], the conditions if any, that would need to be imposed pursuant to Rule 119 of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence to enable the states in which Mr. Bemba

10. On 2 July 2009 the Defence and the Prosecutor filed their additional written submissions on Mr Jean-Pierre Bemba’s request for interim release,¹⁷ and on the same date, the Single Judge received the “Requête aux fins d’extension de la demande initiale en rapport avec les pays d’accueil dans le cadre de la demande de mise en liberté de Mr Jean-Pierre Bemba Gombo lors de l’audience du 29 Juin 2009” submitted by the Defence (the “Defence’s Request”), in which it requested adding the Federal Republic of Germany, the Italian Republic and the Republic of South Africa to the list of States that Mr Jean-Pierre Bemba seeks to be released to.¹⁸

11. On 6 July 2009 the Kingdom of Belgium requested an extension of time to submit its observations until 24 July 2009,¹⁹ which was granted on 8 July 2009.²⁰

12. On 10 July 2009 the Single Judge filed a decision on the Defence’s Request, which was notified on 13 July 2009.²¹ According to this decision, the Single Judge, inter alia, granted the Defence’s Request and requested the relevant authorities of the Federal Republic of Germany, the Italian Republic and the Republic of South Africa, to

18. On 12 August 2009 the Registrar submitted her document on the "Transmission of the observations of the Republic of South Africa received on the Defence request for interim release of Mr Jean-Pierre Bemba Gombo".³¹

19. On 14 August 2009 the Single Judge issued the "Decision on the Interim Release of Jean-Pierre Bemba Gombo and Convening Hearings with the Kingdom of Belgium, the Republic of Portugal, the Republic of France, the Federal Republic of Germany, the Italian Republic and the Republic of South Africa" (the "14 August 2009 Decision"), in which she, inter alia, decided that the accused be granted conditional release, until decided otherwise.³² In the same decision, the Single Judge also decided that the implementation of this decision is deferred "pending a decision in which State [the accused] will be released and which set of conditions shall be imposed on him". Moreover, the Single Judge invited the competent authorities of these States to participate in public hearings at the seat of the Court between 7 and 14 September 2009.³³ On the same date, the Prosecutor filed an appeal against the 14 August 2009 Decision.³⁴

20. On 24 August 2009 the Defence filed the "Réplique de la Défense conformément à la Décision de la Chambre Préliminaire II du 14 août 2009 et Requêtes Incidentes de la Défense", in which it requested that the Single Judge : (1) release the accused temporarily on the territory of the host State until a decision is taken with respect to the execution of the 14 August 2009 Decision; (2) add the Democratic Republic of the Congo (the "DRC") to the list of States that Mr Jean-Pierre Bemba seeks to be released as well as inviting it to participate in the public hearings scheduled to take place between 7 and 14 September 2009; and (3) invite any State Party to the Statute to accept the accused to be released on its territory (the “Defence’s Additional Applications”).³⁵

21. On 31 August 2009 the Registrar filed the “Transmission of Requests from the Italian Republic, the Federal Republic of Germany, the Kingdom of Belgium, the Republic of France and the Republic of Portugal for postponement of the hearings scheduled in the Decision on the Interim Release of Jean-Pierre Bemba Gombo on 14 August 2009” alongside seven confidential annexes.³⁶ In this filing, the Registrar stated, inter alia, that the competent authorities of the Kingdom of Belgium, the Republic of France, the Federal Republic of Germany, the Italian Republic and the Republic of Portugal requested the Single Judge to “postpone the hearings scheduled respectively with these States” (the “States’ Requests”).³⁷

22. On 3 September 2009 the Appeals Chamber issued the “Decision on the Request of the Prosecutor for Suspensive Effect” in which it decided to grant suspensive effect in respect of operative paragraph (a) of the 14 August 2009 Decision, namely, that the accused “be granted conditional release, until decided otherwise” (the “3 September 2009 Decision”).³⁸

23. The Single Judge notes articles 58(1), 60(2) and (3) of the Statute and rule 119(3) of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence.

24. The Single Judge is aware that the suspensive effect granted by the Appeals Chamber does not extend to the remaining operative paragraphs (b)-(j) of the 14 August 2009 Decision, which invite the relevant States to participate in the public hearings scheduled in September 2009. However, being mindful of the indeterminate future legal implications of the 3 September 2009 Decision, that is, the possibility that the Appeals Chamber overturns the 14 August 2009 Decision, and for the sake of preserving the Court's resources, the Single Judge does not consider it feasible, at this stage, to proceed with convening the public hearings as initially scheduled in the 14 August 2009 Decision. This finding of the Single Judge also renders the States' Requests moot.

25. With respect to the Defence's Additional Applications, the Single Judge considers that they are currently premature, given the fact that the Appeals Chamber has suspended the relevant part of the 14 August 2009 Decision granting the accused conditional release. Moreover, since the Single Judge has decided not to carry out the hearings as stated above, she, therefore, refrains from scheduling additional hearings with the other States, including the DRC.

FOR THESE REASONS, THE SINGLE JUDGE

a) decides to postpone the public hearings scheduled to take place with the Kingdom of Belgium, the Republic of Portugal, the Republic of France, the Federal Republic of Germany, the Italian Republic, and the Republic of South Africa from 7-11 September 2009 and on 14 September 2009 respectively, until the Appeals Chamber has ruled on the appeal against the 14 August 2009 Decision;

b) decides not to address the States' Requests as moot;

c) rejects the Defence's Additional Applications.
