Others

1. On 6 January 2012, the defence for Messrs Abdallah Banda Abakaer Nourain and Saleh Mohamed Jerbo Jamus (“defence”) filed a request for a temporary stay of proceedings,¹ in which it submits, inter alia, that “current circumstances make it impossible for Messrs. Banda and Jerbo to present an effective defence”.² The defence contends that as a result of the alleged inability of the Office of the Prosecutor (“prosecution”) to discharge part of its obligations under Article 54 of the Rome Statute (“Statute”), “[n]one of the evidence disclosed to date adequately investigates the many leads from exonerating evidence”.³
2. In the context of this request and in order to enable the Trial Chamber to fully assess the overall position as regards disclosure, the Chamber, pursuant to Article 64(3)(c) of the Statute and Regulation 28(1) of the Regulations of the Court, directs the prosecution to provide additional details and information on the evidence disclosed to the defence to date pursuant to Article 67(2) of the Statute or provided pursuant to Rule 77 of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence (“Rules”).
3. For this reason, the Chamber orders the prosecution to submit, no later than 4 June 2012, a list of items of evidence provided to the defence under Article 67(2) or Rule 77, including the following information:
 - a. a concise summary of, or information about, the content of each item;
 - b. a brief explanation of the reasons why such item of evidence is believed to (i) show or tend to show the innocence of the accused, or to mitigate the guilt of the accused, or affect the credibility of prosecution evidence, and/or (ii) be material to the preparation of the defence; and
 - c. for each disclosed item, any other relevant information, such as the document date, the date of disclosure, the confidentiality level, whether each item has been disclosed in full or in redacted form and its translation status.
