THE PRESIDENCY of the International Criminal Court (“Court”);

NOTING the assignments to the three divisions of the Judiciary as of 10 March 2018;<sup>1</sup>

NOTING the election of Judge Chile Eboe-Osuji as President of the Court, Judge Robert Fremr as First Vice-President of the Court and Judge Marc Perrin de Brichambaut as Second Vice-President of the Court on 11 March 2018;<sup>2</sup>

NOTING article 39(1) of the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court (“Statute”) and rule 4*bis* of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence (“Rules”);

NOTING that the Presidency has consulted with the judges in assigning them to the various divisions of the Judiciary, in accordance with rule 4*bis* of the Rules;

NOTING the assignment of Judge Chile Eboe-Osuji to the Appeals Division in accordance with article 39(1) of the Statute, following his election as President of the Court;

NOTING that when assigning judges to divisions, the Presidency must balance a number of factors to the extent necessary and possible, as set out below, and that the guiding principles informing these factors are the applicable statutory framework and the need to ensure the efficient management of the Court’s workload, including in view of the Court’s long-term needs;<sup>3</sup>

NOTING the relative judicial workload of each judge,<sup>4</sup> the previous involvement of each judge in cases,<sup>5</sup> as well as the experience and expertise of each judge;<sup>6</sup>

SEEKING to ensure, to the extent possible, gender and geographical balance and representation of the world’s principal legal systems within each division;<sup>7</sup>
