Judge Bertram Schmitt, acting as Single Judge on behalf of Trial Chamber V of the International Criminal Court, in the case of The Prosecutor v. Alfred Yekatom and Patrice-Edouard Ngaïssona, having regard to Regulation 23bis and 24bis(2) of the Regulations of the Court (the 'Regulations') and Regulation 24(4) of the Regulations of the Registry, issues this 'Order to Review Ex Parte Filings on the Case Record'.

- 1. On 20 April 2020, the Yekatom Defence requested the Chamber that two filings on the case record¹ be reclassified from confidential ex parte to confidential (the 'Request').² It further indicated that, as noted in its submissions for the first status conference, 'the Yekatom and Ngaïssona defences have now agreed that both teams should have access to each other's detention-related pleadings in the case' and, therefore, 'would like to implement this process by having [...] [those filings] reclassified'.³
- 2. In light of the Request and mindful that, at the present stage of the proceedings, the basis for the initial classification of the filings on the case record may no longer exist, the Single Judge considers the undertaking of a review of all the ex parte filings on the case record necessary.
- 3. Accordingly, the Single Judge firstly instructs the Registry to put on the record by 1 May 2020 a list of the ex parte filings on the case record, including, for each filing, the document number, the source and who has access to it.⁴
- 4. Secondly, the Single Judge instructs the parties, the participants and the Registry to (i) undertake a review of their respective filings in this list; (ii) engage in inter partes consultations with the other parties and participants and the Registry, where applicable who have access to their respective filings for the purposes of resolving any issues; and (iii) provide confidential redacted versions of their respective filings (and public redacted versions, where possible), or, alternatively, apply to the Chamber for their reclassification.

5. Taking into account the special circumstances in the host State and the possible impact this has on the efficiency of the work of the parties and the participants, the Single Judge orders that this process be completed by 22 May 2020.

6. Thirdly, the Single Judge announces that he will subsequently undertake a review of the Pre-Trial Chamber II's and this Chamber's decisions and orders issued on the case, with a view to issuing confidential redacted, confidential or public redacted versions or, alternatively, ordering reclassification, where possible.

FOR THE FOREGOING REASONS, THE SINGLE JUDGE HEREBY

INSTRUCTS the Registry to put on the record a list of ex parte filings, as set out in paragraph 3 above, by 1 May 2020.

INSTRUCTS the parties, the participants and the Registry to undertake a review of their ex parte filings on the case record and comply with the process set out in paragraph 4 above, by 22 May 2020.

Done in both English and French, the English version being authoritative.
