PRE-TRIAL CHAMBER I (the ‘Chamber’) of the International Criminal Court (the ‘Court’) issues this Decision on the Prosecutor’s Request for extension of page limit for article 15(3) Request.

I. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

1. On 16 March 2021, the Presidency of the Court recomposed the Chamber and assigned the following situations to it: Democratic Republic of the Congo; Libya; Republic of Mali; Gabonese Republic; Registered Vessels of Comoros, Greece and Cambodia; Palestine; People’s Republic of Bangladesh and the Republic of the Union of Myanmar; Plurinational State of Bolivia; Georgia; Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela I and Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela II.¹

2. On 19 April 2021, the Presidency also assigned, with immediate effect, the situation in the Republic of the Philippines to the Chamber.²

3. On 20 April 2021, the Chamber received the Prosecutor’s ‘Request for extension of page limit for article 15(3) Request’³ (the ‘Request for extension of page limit’), requesting the Chamber to grant an extension of the page limit for the request by an additional 50 pages pursuant to regulations 37(2) and 38(2)(e) of the Regulations of the Court (the ‘Regulations’).⁴ The Prosecutor submits that ‘[t]he complexity of the factual and legal issues contained in the Request’ constitutes an exceptional circumstance warranting an extension of the page limit prescribed in regulation 38(2)(e) of the Regulations and that the requested extension of the page limit will permit the Prosecution ‘to set forth in appropriate detail the factual and legal issues relevant to its Request’ and ‘to describe in sufficient detail the nature and pattern of the alleged crimes, as well as the structure and operations of the groups allegedly involved in the crimes and their modus operandi’.⁵

II. DETERMINATION BY THE CHABMER

4. The Chamber recalls regulation 37(2) of the Regulations pursuant to which it ‘may, at the request of a participant, extend the page limit in exceptional circumstances’. The Chamber

⁵ Request for extension of page limit, para. 4.

notes that the request does not specifically address the exceptional circumstances test contained in the afore-mentioned regulation. In particular, the request does not provide adequate reasons why '[t]he complexity of the factual and legal issues contained in the Request' cannot be addressed sufficiently within the 60 page limit provided for in regulation 38(2)(e) of the Regulations. The Chamber is not satisfied that the mere invocation of particular complexity without more amounts to exceptional circumstances within the meaning of regulation 37(2) of the Regulations.⁶

FOR THESE REASONS, THE CHAMBER HEREBY

REJECTS the Request for extension of page limit.

Done in both English and French, the English version being authoritative.
