Subject: RE: Prosecution request for an extension of the page limit for the third rule 68(3) application

Dear Prosecution,

The Chamber takes note of the Prosecution request below to extend the page limit (from 12 to 16 pages) for its third application pursuant to rule 68(3) of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence. The Chamber further notes that the request is unopposed.

The Chamber has taken into account the fact that the anticipated request concerns six witnesses and that the number of additional pages requested is relatively limited. Therefore, pursuant to regulation 37(2) of the Regulations of the Court, the Chamber grants the requested extension of the page limit.

Kind regards,
 Trial Chamber VI

Subject: Prosecution request for an extension of the page limit for the third rule 68(3) application

Dear Trial Chamber VI,

The Prosecution respectfully requests a 4-page extension of the page limit for its third application under rule 68(3) from 12 pages to 16 pages. The Prosecution seeks to file the application tomorrow.

The Prosecution considers that there are exceptional circumstances within the meaning of regulation 37(2) of the Regulations, justifying an extension of the page limit for the following reasons:

The 68(3) application in question pertains to 6 witnesses who were detained at the OCB and provide evidence pertaining to crimes committed at the OCB. Their evidence corroborates other witnesses who will be called to testify in person. While the Prosecution will keep the request concise and avoid repetition, it will not be able to cover all of the necessary information relating to these 6 witnesses within the current 12 page limit. However, it is in the interests of judicial economy that all 6 witnesses are included in one single application, as this will substantially reduce the overall amount of pages that the Prosecution will use to make its arguments in relation to the 6 witnesses.

The Defence and the Legal Representative of Victims do not oppose the Prosecution's request for this limited amount of additional pages.

The Prosecution therefore requests that the page limit for this application be extended by 4 pages, from 12 pages to 16 pages.

Kind regards, [REDACTED]
