Subject: RE: In-court protective measures for witness DAR-P-0935

Dear colleagues,
Dear counsel,

The Chamber has taken note of the VWU's recommendations for in-court protective measures in respect of P-0935. The Chamber also notes that there is no objection from the parties and participants.

Accordingly, the Chamber grants the following in-court protective measures in respect of P-0935: use of pseudonyms, image and voice distortion, use of closed and/or private session when required, and redaction of any identifying information from the Court's records before dissemination to the public.

Kind regards,

[REDACTED]
(on behalf of Trial Chamber I)

Subject: In-court protective measures for witness DAR-P-0935

Dear colleagues,
Dear counsels,

Please find below the in-court protective measures report in relation to DAR-P-0935.

Background

[REDACTED] The VWU interviewed him on 11 October 2022 for the purpose of an in-court protective measures assessment.

Witness's concern

The witness stated that he does not have any security concerns for himself. He added that [REDACTED] and he is concerned that they may be harmed if his testimony before the Court is made public.

The VWU explained to the witness the various procedural protective measures that the Court may implement to mitigate risks that may emanate from his testimony. He requested the VWU to inform the Court to consider granting him procedural protective measures to hide his identity.

Protection Analysis

[REDACTED] However, [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
Consequently, the VWU considers that implementation of procedural protective measures to ensure that the witness's identity is not publicized during his testimony before the Court, may mitigate potential risks to [REDACTED] that may emanate from his testimony.

Recommendations

The VWU recommends that the Court consider granting the witness the following in-court protective measures: use of pseudonyms, image and voice distortion, use of closed and/or private session when required, and redaction of any identifying information from the Court's records before dissemination to the public.

Kind regards,

IO
