[REDACTED] is highly committed to the International Criminal Court and its pivotal role in combatting impunity globally. [REDACTED] also firmly believes that cooperation of States, especially States Parties to the Rome Statute, is critical for the ICC to fulfill its mandate.

At the moment, [REDACTED] does not have an agreement with the ICC on the relocation of persons in cases of interim release. In the absence of a specific agreement, and given that the national decision making process in accordance with national law, [REDACTED] regrets it will not be able to assist the Court in the case at hand.

[REDACTED] avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Registry of the International Criminal Court the assurance of its highest consideration.
