The Order is annexed to the present note verbale.

Background information

On 14 March 2022, Mr Maxime Geoffroy Eli Mokom Gawaka (“Mr Mokom”) was surrendered to the Court pursuant to an arrest warrant issued by Chamber. Mr Mokom appeared before the Chamber on 22 March 2022. On 7 November 2022, the Chamber issued the Order in which it ordered Mr Mokom, if he wishes to apply for interim release, to submit a substantiated application by 14 November 2022. In the same document and so as to expedite the process, the Registry was ordered “to liaise with Duty Counsel in the event Mr Mokom decides to submit an application for interim release, with a view to directly commencing consultations with the Host State and the State(s) to which Mr Mokom proposes to be released to, including the Netherlands”.

Moreover, in the Application Mr Mokom undertook that:

- He would not engage in any political activities during his interim release;
- He would not make any public statements or social media post, directly or through a person, about the case;
- He would not talk to the public or the press concerning the case;

- He would comply with any reasonable conditions imposed by the receiving State during the interim release including electronic monitoring, the imposition of curfews or home confinement.

Subject of the request

Following the Order and should the Chamber grant the Application, the Registry invites the [REDACTED] authorities to consider accepting Mr Mokom on their territory for the purpose of the interim release with the conditions listed above.

On 7 November 2022, the Chamber issued the Order in which it ordered Mr Mokom, if he wishes to apply for interim release, to submit a substantiated application by 14 November 2022. The Order is annexed to the present note verbale.

Background information

On 14 March 2022, Mr Maxime Geoffroy Eli Mokom Gawaka (“Mr Mokom”) was surrendered to the Court pursuant to an arrest warrant issued by Chamber. Mr Mokom appeared before the Chamber on 22 March 2022. He is suspected of war crimes and crimes against humanity allegedly committed in the Central African Republic between 5 December 2013 and December 2014.

The opening of the confirmation of charges hearing was initially scheduled to 31 January 2023. However due to procedural challenges indicated in the Order, the opening will be postponed to a new date which is yet to be set.

On 7 November 2022, the Chamber issued the Order in which it ordered Mr Mokom, if he wishes to apply for interim release, to submit a substantiated application by 14 November 2022. In the same document and so as to expedite the process, the Registry was ordered “to liaise with Duty Counsel in the event Mr Mokom decides to submit an application for interim release, with a view to directly commencing consultations with the Host State and the State(s) to which Mr Mokom proposes to be released to, including the Netherlands”.

On 14 November, “Mr Mokom’s Application for Interim Release Pursuant to Order ICC-01/14-01/22-105” (“Application”, ICC-01/14-01/22-110-Conf) was submitted by his Duty Counsel on a confidential basis.

- (d) to not engage in certain professional activities;
- (e) full compliance with all orders issued in the case including an order to surrender himself immediately to the relevant authorities if required by the Chamber;

- (i) to provide the Registrar with all mobile and other telephone numbers and ensure that at least one of his mobile telephone numbers remains active and with sufficient credit to be reachable at any time; and

Moreover, in the Application Mr Mokom undertook that:

- He would not engage in any political activities during his interim release;

- He would not talk to the public or the press concerning the case;
