Subject: RE: 220930 - Prosecution's request for an extension of time limit

Dear Parties and participants,

The Chamber has taken note of the Prosecution's request for an additional extension of three weeks from the current deadline to submit its rule 68 application pertaining to P-1339.

In line with its previous decisions issued via email on 3 October 2022 at 15:37 and 20 October 2022 and 10:57, the Chamber finds that good cause within the meaning of regulation 35(2) of the Regulations of the Court has been shown due to the fact that the preparation of the respective transcripts is a process outside of the Prosecution's control.

Furthermore, the Chamber observes that the Defence does not oppose the request.

Accordingly, the Chamber grants the Prosecution's request. In this regard, the Chamber notes that the existing directions given by the Chamber via email on 7 September 2022 at 09:35, 3 October 2022 at 15:37 and 20 October 2022 and 10:57 remain in place.

Kind regards,
 Trial Chamber VI

Dear Trial Chamber VI,

The Prosecution respectfully requests for an additional extension of time limit pursuant to regulation 35(1) of the Regulations of the Court ("Regulations"), pertaining to the same rule 68 application for P-1339.

The Prosecution confirms that since the Prosecution requested for the extension of three weeks on 20 October 2022 six French transcripts remain unavailable (ICC-01/14-01/18-T-152-CONF-FRA; ICC-01/14-01/18-T-154-CONF-FRA; ICC-01/14-01/18-T-155-CONF-FRA; ICC-01/14-01/18-T-158-CONF-FRA; ICC-01/14-01/18-T-159-CONF-FRA; ICC-01/14-01/18-T-160-CONF-FRA).

The Prosecution incorporates by reference its arguments made in its previous request and submits that there is good cause within the meaning of regulation 35(2) of the Regulations for further extension of time limit.

Subject: 220930 - Prosecution's request for an extension of time limit

Dear Trial Chamber VI,

The Prosecution respectfully requests for an extension of time limit to submit its rule 68(3) application pertaining to P-1339, which is currently due on 4 October 2022, pursuant to regulation 35(1) of the Regulations of the Court ("Regulations").

The Prosecution considers that there is good cause within the meaning of regulation 35(2) of the Regulations, justifying an extension of the time limit for the following reasons:

In its decision #305, para. 17, the Chamber extended the time limit for the submission of rule 68 applications pertaining to three Prosecution witnesses, namely P-0975, P-1339 and P-2269, to 20 days after completion of their respective testimony. One of these witnesses, P-1339, gave his oral testimony in the Yekatom & Ngaissona case on 1, 2, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 12, 13 and 14 September 2022, thereby setting the deadline for filing a request for this witness on 4 October 2022. However, as of today, English transcripts of 2 and 13 September 2022 as well as French transcripts of 1, 2, 6, 7, 8, 12, 13 and 14 September 2022 are yet available. The Prosecution inquired with CMS on 26 September 2022 on whether the remaining transcripts will be available by the end of this week. On 29 September 2022, CMS inform the Prosecution that they need more time to provide their response. The preparation of hearing transcripts are handled by the CMS, and the Prosecution has no control over this process.

The Prosecution submits that the remaining transcripts are necessary for its rule 68 application as they form part of the witness's prior recorded testimony which the Prosecution intends to assess and request for introduction into evidence through this filing. Their disclosure will also be required. As not all transcripts would be available by 4 October 2022, the Prosecution cannot proceed with a full request pursuant to rule 68 of the Rules.

In light of the above, the Prosecution respectfully requests for an additional extension of three weeks from the current deadline to submit its rule 68 application pertaining to P-1339.

Kind regards,
