Subject: ICC-01/14-01/22 - Order regarding decisions and submissions submitted by way of email - Public

Dear Counsel, dear Registry,

Considering the importance of the publicity of the proceedings, Pre-Trial Chamber II orders the Prosecution, Defence, Registry, Office of Public Counsel for Victims, and Common Legal Representatives of Victims to review all previous or forthcoming Registry's quarterly reports on decisions issued by way of e-mail and where necessary, by no later than 7 February 2024, (i) for email decisions and/or submissions currently classified as confidential and ex parte, propose redactions to the Chamber with a view to issuing a confidential redacted version, or request that such decisions and/or submissions be reclassified as confidential; and (ii) for confidential (including redacted) email decisions and/or submissions that currently do not have a public redacted version, propose redactions to the Chamber with a view to issuing a public redacted version or request that such decisions and/or submissions be reclassified as public. Should a party or participant consider that the current classification of a particular decision needs to be exceptionally maintained, it shall provide a reasoned request to this effect by the same date.

Kind regards,
Pre-Trial Chamber II
