Sudan International Defense Group to collect 10 million signatures against Ocampo's decision

Khartoum, July 29 (SUNA) - The Sudan International Defence Group announced its intention to collect some 10 million signatures in rejection and denunciation to the allegations made by the prosecutor of the International Criminal Court (ICC), Ocampo, as well as filing a legal memorandum to the ICC in the Hague. This came when the Secretary General of the organization, Dr. Mohammed Al-Ansari addressed Tuesday leaders of the national civil society organizations and associations at the premises of the Sudan Workers Trade Unions Federation (SWTUF). Dr. Al-Ansari revealed that organizations and intelligence circles of Sudan's enemies are behind the decision of Ocampo, and outlined the plan of the Sudan International Defence Group inside and outside Sudan, including collection of 10 million signatures against Ocampo's decision and filing memo to the ICC in the Hague in denunciation of the statement. Meanwhile, Chairman of the SWTUF, Prof. Ibrahim Ghandour affirmed that it would be very difficult for the enemies of Sudan to infringe the dignity and sovereignty of Sudan. Leaders of the Civil Society Organizations and political parties announced commitment to collect 10 million signatures against Ocampo's decision and affirmed support to President Al-Bashir and the Sudanese leadership.
