

Professor Dr. Tin Aung Aye

[BSc, BL, LLM (Germany), LLD (Germany)]

Supreme Court Judge (from 14 November 1998)

Professor Dr. Tin Aung Aye studied and obtained his postgraduate degrees in labour law in the early 1970s and worked for a while in the Burma Pharmaceutical Industry (BPI) before joining the teaching staff of the Department of Law of (what was then called) Rangoon Arts and Science University. Later Professor Dr. Tin Aung Aye was appointed as Rector of the University of Yangon (as it is now called). As stated in the 1998 Myanmar Law Reports, from 14 November 1998 he was appointed by the State Peace and Development Council (SPDC) as a Judge in the Myanmar Supreme Court. Dr. Tin Aung Aye also served on the Commission for Drafting the State Constitution.
