

Public
Annex B

Trial Chamber’s findings concerning victims of murder and attempted murder (counts 1 and 2)

#	Trial Judgment references	Sentence Judgment references	Number of victims	Fatal?	Victim details	Victim in hands of the perpetrator?	Summary of relevant factual findings
1	506, 888, 1199	40, 47-48	1	Yes	Woman in front of health centre, Sayo	Possibly ¹	Characterised as occurring “during the assault” (SJ, para. 48, fn. 137). A witness saw the body while the assault continued, but did not see the circumstances in which she died (TJ, para. 506, fns. 1478 and 1480).
2	512-513, 526, 528, 533, 1199	40, 45, 47-48	5+	Yes	People in Mongbwalu and Sayo during ratissage , including a Lendu woman suspected of being a chieftain, and people at the Appartements camp, including Abbé Bwanalonga	Yes	Ratissage occurred after the conclusion of the assaults—once the “takeover” had occurred—and comprised looting, killings, and capture of Lendu persons (TJ, paras. 512-513, 526; SJ, para. 48, fns. 138-139). The Lendu woman was killed after first being detained, interrogated, and tortured at Salumu’s camp (TJ, para. 513; SJ, para. 48, fn. 141). The Appartements victims had first been questioned (TJ, paras. 528, 530, 533; SJ, para. 48, fn. 141).
3	510, 1199	40, 47-48	2	Yes	Two Lendu persons in Nzebi	Yes	Victims were captured and detained prior to their murder (TJ, para. 510; SJ, para. 48, fn. 142).
4	543, 1199	40, 47-48	2+	Yes	Lendu persons in Kilo	Yes	Killings occurred after the assault, after the population had been told to return from the bush and once the UPC/FPLC was in control (TJ, paras. 540, 543; SJ, para. 48, fn. 140).
5	546, 1199	40, 47-48	2	Yes	Ngiti man and pregnant Lendu woman in Kilo	Yes	Victims were captured and detained in a pit prior to their murder (TJ, para. 546; SJ, para. 48, fn. 140).
6	547, 1199	40, 47-48	1	Yes	Nyali man in Kilo	Yes	Victim was killed after fetching water, for having sung an anti-Hema song, while the UPC/FPLC was in “control of Kilo” (TJ, para. 547, fn. 1649; SJ, para. 48, fn. 140).
7	573, 896,	40, 47-48	2+	Yes	At least two young children in	Possibly ²	Characterised as occurring “during the assault” (SJ,

	1199				Kobu as they attempted to flee the assault		para. 48, fn. 137), although there was “minimal resistance from the Lendu, as they quickly fled once the UPC/FPLC started shooting” (TJ, para. 573, fn. 1768) and “Kobu was taken over by the UPC/FPLC within a few hours” (TJ, para. 574).
8	577, 1199	40, 47-48	2+	Yes	At least two persons during ratissage in Kobu	Yes	Ratissage occurred “[a]fter the UPC/FPLC took control of Kobu”, and victims were captured prior to their murder (TJ, para. 577; SJ, para. 148, fn. 143).
9	587, 897, 1199	40, 47-48	9	Yes	Nine hospital patients in Bambu	Yes ³	Characterised as occurring “during the assault” (SJ, para. 48, fn. 137), but taking place within the hospital where the victims had “been left unattended by fleeing health care personnel because they were too weak to also flee” (TJ, para. 587).
10	600, 1199	40, 47-48	1	Yes	Female rape victim who tried to defend herself in Sangi	Yes	Victim was captured at “pacification meeting” in Sangi prior to her murder (TJ, paras. 597-598; SJ, para. 48, fn. 144).
11	600, 1199	40, 47-48	1	Yes	P-0018’s sister-in-law in Sangi	Yes	Victim was captured and raped prior to her murder (TJ, paras. 600, 618; SJ, para. 48, fn. 144).
12	623, 1199	40, 47-48	2+	Yes	Male rape victims in Kobu	Yes	Victims were captured and raped prior to their murder (TJ, paras. 620-623).
13	628, 633, 1199	40, 47-48	49+	Yes	At least 49 persons in a banana field, near Paradiso building in Kobu	Yes	Victims were captured and questioned prior to their murder, in locations including Sangi, Gola, Buli, and the surrounding bush, and detained in various houses in Kobu (TJ, paras. 620-624, 628, 633; SJ, para. 48, fn. 143).
14	601, 1199	41, 47-48, 50	1	No	P-0018	Yes	Victim was captured prior to her murder (TJ, paras. 595, 597, 600-601, 618; SJ, para. 48, fn. 144). Victim was raped before the attempted murder (TJ, para. 601; SJ, para. 50, fn. 149).
15	622, 632, 1199	41, 47	1	No	P-0019	Yes	Victim was captured at “pacification meeting” in Sangi, and then moved to various locations, raped, and then shot as she was trying to escape from captivity (TJ, paras. 599, 622, 632)

16	546, 1199	41, 47	1	No	P-0022	Yes	Victim was detained by a UPC/FPLC soldier when fetching water, and held in a pit in the ground where she was assaulted and raped, and then left for dead (TJ, paras. 545-546)
17	628, 1199	41, 47, 50	1	No	P-0108	Yes	Victim was detained in one of the houses in Kobu and then tried to flee as he was brought outside in the context of the banana field massacre, and left for dead (TJ, para. 628; SJ, para. 50, fn. 146).
18	587, 897, 1199	41, 47	1	No	Hospital patient in Bambu	Yes ⁴	Characterised as occurring “during the assault” (SJ, para. 48, fn. 137), but taking place within the hospital where the victims had “been left unattended by fleeing health care personnel because they were too weak to also flee” (TJ, para. 587).

¹ But see further Response, para. 67, fn. 183 (explaining that the underlying evidence may suggest that the UPC had obtained control of the relevant areas at the material time).

² But see further Response, para. 67, fn. 183 (explaining that the underlying evidence may suggest that the UPC had obtained control of the relevant areas at the material time).

³ But see further Response, para. 67.

⁴ But see further Response, para. 67.