Judge Ekaterina Trendafilova, acting as Single Judge¹ on behalf of Pre-Trial Chamber II (the “Chamber”) of the International Criminal Court (the “Court”) renders this decision ensuring the rights of the defence for the purposes of the initial appearance hearing.

1. On 8 March 2011, the Chamber, by majority, decided to summon William Samoei Ruto, Henry Kiprono Kosgey and Joshua Arap Sang to appear before the Court on Thursday, 7 April 2011 at 9.30 hours.²

2. The Single Judge notes articles 60(1) and 67 of the Rome Statute (the “Statute”), rule 20 of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence (the “Rules”), and regulation 186 of the Regulations of the Registry (the “RoR”).

3. According to article 60(1) of the Statute, upon the person’s appearance before the Court pursuant to a summons, the Pre-Trial Chamber “shall satisfy itself that the person has been informed of the crimes which he or she is alleged to have committed, and of his or her rights under the Statute”.

4. Pursuant to rule 20 of the Rules, the Registrar is responsible, inter alia, for providing support, assistance, and information to all defence counsels appearing before the Court. The Registrar is also responsible for providing the defence with such facilities as may be necessary for the direct performance of their duty. Some of these facilities are set out in regulation 186(2)(b) of the RoR, which should apply mutatis mutandis to a person who appears before the Court pursuant to a summons to appear.

5. The Single Judge therefore considers that, in order to preserve the rights of the defence and the principle of fairness, the Registrar shall take all the appropriate steps to inform the three persons of their rights under the Statute and to set up the necessary facilities to enable the defence to properly prepare for the initial appearance hearing.

FOR THESE REASONS, THE SINGLE JUDGE HEREBY

orders the Registrar to inform William Samoei Ruto, Henry Kiprono Kosgey and Joshua Arap Sang of their rights under the Statute as soon as practicable upon their arrival in the Host State;

orders the Registrar to provide the defence with such facilities as may be necessary for the direct performance of their duty;

orders the Registrar to report to the Chamber as soon as these measures have been implemented.
