Dear parties and participants,

The Chamber regrets that it is compelled to inform you that it will not be possible to resume the trial of Mr Said on 20 February 2023.

At this moment the Chamber is not in a position to determine when it will be possible to resume the trial.

In order to discuss the practical and procedural implications of this situation, the Chamber hereby convenes a status conference on Tuesday 7 February 2023 at 10:00 in courtroom 2.

The status conference will be held in closed session without the accused.

A representative of the Registry will be present and give a short briefing on the current situation.

Kind regards,
Trial Chamber VI

Subject: RE: SAID - Cancellation of hearings

Dear parties and participants,

With reference to the messages from the Prosecution and the Common Legal Representative of Victims below, the Chamber is fully aware that the cancellation of hearings causes logistical and other complications. For this reason, the Chamber cancels hearings only when needed and informs the parties at the earliest opportunity so as to allow them to make any necessary arrangements.

At this stage, the Chamber is not in a position to provide any additional information about the cancellation. Indeed, the Chamber is not in possession of information that could assist the Prosecution in planning its operations and/or allocating its resources. However, the Chamber can inform the Prosecution that, based on the information available to it, there is no indication that the trial will not be able to resume in 2023.

Please note that the Chamber will sit on 16-19 January 2023 as originally scheduled and that it requests the Prosecution to only schedule witnesses who can appear via AVL. Additional information would be communicated to all parties and participants when available.

Kind regards,
Trial Chamber VI

Subject: SAID - Cancellation of hearings

Dear parties and participants,

The Chamber hereby informs the parties and participants that, on account of reasons outside the Chamber's control, it is necessary to cancel all hearings from 24 January 2023 until 20 February 2023. It is possible that more hearings may have to be cancelled after that, so the Prosecution is asked to only schedule witnesses who can appear via AVL until at least 3 March 2023.

Until further notice, the Chamber will be able to sit on 16-19 January 2023 as originally scheduled. However, it would be prudent to only schedule witnesses how can appear via AVL for this period as well in case there is a need to cancel these hearings also.

Kind regards,
Trial Chamber VI
